Updates on Returning to Michigan State University for the fall semester

MSU President Samuel Stanley announced the decision that masks are now required indoors on campus for all individuals. COVID-19 vaccination for all students, faculty and staff are required by Aug. 31. Students, faculty and staff must be either fully vaccinated or have at least one dose and on their way to full vaccination.

Protect Yourself

All individuals are required to wear masks indoors in all campus buildings and other MSU facilities in East Lansing and throughout the state. This requirement will be in place for at least the first weeks of the fall semester.

Resources

How to pay for College

Michigan State University has hundreds of scholarship and fellowship opportunities available.

Opportunities can be a combination of:

- General scholarships (open to all students)
- Departmental scholarships (restricted to students within a specific major/field)
- Fellowships (open to graduate students)

Scholarships and fellowships may be recommended to you at different times throughout the year, so we suggest visiting MSU Scholarships often.

Getting Involved on Campus

College is a great time to try new things. By getting involved in college and making the effort to meet others and participate in college life, you are likely to open up new opportunities for yourself and have a more rewarding college experience. Due to COVID-19 you may find yourself still having to virtually engage in college activities. Although being involved online feels different than being involved around the campus, you can still make friends, make a connection with professors, discover new interests, and so much more.
